Subject: Fwd: TRAIN ACCIDENTS DO HAPPEN...

Dear ladies and gentlemen decisions - makers of SLO;

A passenger train has just slammed into a... STATION ! in Hoboken, NJ. please see link below.

Hoboken Train Crash Leaves at Least One Dead and Dozens Injured

It is clearly a no- brainer, and your responsibility as our elected officials entrusted with securing the public safety, to avoid placing the safety and health of the citizens of the San Luis Obispo County in direct, possibly catastrophic harm by approving the regular passage of oil trains through the midst of highly populated areas.

Accidents DO happen. and when they do, as they WILL, words will NOT be sufficient to answer for the unavoidable calamities.

The only way to avoid REPEATING history, is by heeding the common sense of it all. NOW.

respectfully,

A group of concerned residents of slo county.
